B1KE Mountain Bike Skills Courses

Booking Conditions

The contract for your off road skills course/training package is with B1KE here in after referred to as the instructor. These booking conditions, together with the information contained in the prospectus and booking form, form the basis of your contract.

All possible care is taken to see that you have a happy and successful mountain bike skills course. The booking conditions below seek to explain as clearly as possible the responsibility undertaken between us when you make, and we accept, a booking.

1. To make a booking

Reservations can only be made directly with B1KE who will provide you with a booking form. This booking form must then be completed and signed by the person accepting the booking conditions on behalf of all those named on the form. Both parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the English Courts. Bookings are accepted at our discretion.

Cheques should be made payable to B1KE

2. Our price policy

The prices given in the prospectus are the expected cost of the package described and will be confirmed when you make the booking. Once the booking has been confirmed in writing, we guarantee that we will not increase the price of your course.

3. If you cancel your booking:

Cancellations will only be accepted in writing from the person who signed the booking form. We can accept no responsibility for cancellation charges arising from correspondence delayed or lost in the post.

Should you be forced to cancel your booking, cancellation charges will be applied as follows:

In the event of participant cancellation with 4 weeks of the course fees will be refunded less a cancellation charge of £25.

4. If we cancel your booking:

Provided all monies have been paid we will not cancel your training course unless we are forced to do so:

- i) due to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control which could not be avoided even with all due care having been exercised, or what is usually known as "force majeure" (see clause 12)
or
- ii) because the minimum number of bookings needed to operate the skills course has not been reached. In this case participants will be notified of the cancellation as soon as possible.

If the skills course is cancelled all monies paid will be refunded without interest. We will NOT pay any compensation or be liable to refund you any incidental expenses that you may have incurred as a result of your booking. For bookings from overseas this includes visas, vaccinations, non-refundable connecting flights etc.

5. If we change your booking:

Circumstances may require some changes to be made at any time to the particulars of your skills course. Any such changes will be held to be of a minor nature. We will not materially change the value of the training course and the original theme will be retained.

6. Before you make a booking

Participants should be aware that cycling both on and off road is a potentially dangerous activity, and that they undertake the training course at their own risk.

The Instructor shall not be responsible for participants' actions or for injury, damage to property or other loss due to an inadequately serviced or maintained cycle or other personal equipment or any other matter beyond their control.

Before making a firm booking for the training course, intending participants MUST make certain it is appropriate to their physical abilities. In addition, pre-existing medical or mental conditions or learning or physical disabilities, whether or not these are controlled by medication or are currently dormant, must be declared before booking. The Instructor shall not be responsible if any participant is unfit for the training course. Any participant suffering from diabetes, asthma or any other condition requiring medication shall ensure that the Instructor is aware of this. It remains the responsibility of each participant to disclose the existence of such a medical condition. The Instructor will not be held responsible for any failure to do so.

8. Bookings are accepted on the following understanding:

The participant's booking is accepted on the understanding that he or she realises the hazards involved in this kind of skills coaching including injury, loss of or damage to property including cycles, inconvenience and discomfort.

The whole philosophy of this type of skills coaching is one that allows alternatives and requires a substantial degree of flexibility. The outline itineraries given for each session must therefore be taken as an indication of what is to be accomplished and not as a contractual obligation. Changes in itinerary may be caused by local conditions, mechanical breakdown, weather, sickness or other unforeseen circumstances. No refund will be given for services not utilised. It is a fundamental condition of joining the training course that a participant accepts the need for this flexibility and acknowledges that alterations and their results, such as inconvenience, discomfort or disappointment, are possible.

It is necessary that a participant abides by the authority of, and co-operates with, the organisers, Instructors and their agents/representatives. Signing the booking form signifies the participant's agreement to this, and we reserve the right to terminate without notice the skills coaching arrangements of any participant who commits an illegal act when or whose behaviour is such that it is likely, or that of any accommodation owner or manager, or other person in authority, to cause distress, danger, damage or annoyance to other customers, employees, property or to any third party. In all cases we will be under no obligation whatsoever for any costs incurred, and the participant concerned shall not be entitled to any refund.

9. Our liability to you

We promise to ensure that all parts of the training course we have agreed to arrange as part of our contract are provided to a reasonable standard and in accordance with that contract. We accept responsibility for any personal injury or death caused to you as a result of the proven negligent acts and/or omissions of B1KE, staff, agents, suppliers and sub-contractors. The Instructor shall not be liable for any damages caused by the total or partial failure to carry out the contract if such failure is:

- i) attributable to the participant or any member of his or her party,
or
- ii) the fault of a third party unconnected to the Instructor
or
- iii) a result of unusual or unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the Instructor or the supplier of the service in question which could not have been predicted or avoided even after taking all reasonable care (see clause 12 Force majeure)
or
- iv) the fault of any person who was not carrying out work for us (generally or in particular) at the time.

Where the Instructor is found to be liable for damages in respect of its failure to carry out the contract the maximum amount of such damages will be limited to the price paid for the training course. Where the damages relate to the provision of accommodation, any compensation payable will be further limited by the Paris Convention 1962. Any arrangements made by the participant that are not part of the training course are entirely at his or her own risk.

10. Should you have a complaint?

In the event of problems arising during the training course, participants should try to resolve them directly with the B1KE staff, and/or their agents/representatives. If the problem cannot be resolved at this time an incident report form will be completed, a copy of which will be given to you.

Complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the procedures of the Instructor under which the complaint will be investigated by a senior official from B1KE within a given timescale. Should an amicable solution not be agreed an appeal will be handled at management level.

11. Special requests

Any special requests made on your booking form are noted, and though we do our very best to comply with these we cannot guarantee they will be provided.

12. Force majeure

This is the term applied to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances that are beyond our control. Compensation payments do not apply to changes, cancellations or curtailment caused by reason of war, threat of war, riots, civil strife, terrorist activities, industrial disputes, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions, floods etc or similar events. We cannot accept responsibility where the performance or prompt performance of our contract with you is prevented or affected as a result of such circumstances.

13. Data Protection Act

In order to process your booking and ensure that your booking arrangements run smoothly, we need to use the information you provide such as name, address, any special needs/dietary requirements etc.

This information if required must be passed on to the relevant suppliers such as accommodation providers etc. We take full responsibility for ensuring that proper security measures are in place to protect your information whilst in our hands.

14. Marketing

Photographs, likenesses or images of participants secured or taken on any of our training courses may be used by the Instructor without charge in all media for bona fide promotional or marketing purposes.
